

Guide if transport damage occurs

IMPORTANT INFORMATION - PLEASE NOTE

This is what your consignment should look like if it was not damaged in transit:

Examples of consignments damaged in transit:

This is the right way to act:

- Packaging damaged / Open defect

- In the presence of the delivering truck driver, document the type and extent of the damage on the consignment note and have it countersigned (e.g. 1 pal. with dented cardboard box)
- Even if the damage appears minor, make a note of this on the consignment note and have it countersigned by the driver. Driver's name and registration number should be clearly legible!
- Take pictures of the goods, before and after unloading
- Unpack the goods and determine the full extent of the damage

Please note that without a confirmation of damage by the forwarding agent (driver), a claim settlement is not possible!

- Packaging flawless, but contents damaged / Hidden defect

- Take pictures when unpacking the goods
- Record the serial numbers of the defective modules

Open defects must be reported immediately after receipt of the goods. (§377 HGB)

Hidden defects must be reported no later than 7 days after delivery.
